

Let's Play Telephone!

Cut out these cards and turn them over on a flat surface. Have your child select a card. Your child then "reads" the card by whispering the names of the objects into a family member's ear. The listener then whispers exactly what they heard to someone else. That person says out loud what they heard. Your child reveals the card to confirm if everyone heard the words correctly!

